

International Island Games Association (IIGA)

IIGA is a limited company which owns the rights to the NatWest Island Games

IIGA Executive Committee

IIGA Executive Committee (EC) consists of a Chairman, Vice Chairman, Treasurer and 3 Members, assisted by an Honorary Legal Adviser, an Honorary Medical Adviser, all of whom are elected every 2 years at the Annual General Meeting by the Member Island Associations. Each Member Island that hosts a Games is represented on the Committee by a non-voting Member for the 2 year period from the close of the previous Games to the close of their Games. The General Secretary is appointed by the EC. Although the Association's work covers many different facets, the EC carries the ultimate responsibility for ensuring every NatWest Island Games, and the organisation itself, is run in an efficient and professional manner.

IIGA Constitution, Operational Guidelines, Sports By-laws and Anti-Doping Rules

The IIGA is ruled by its Memorandum and Articles of Association, its Constitution, Operational Guidelines, Sports By-laws and Anti Doping Rules. Amendments to the M & A and the Constitution have to be agreed by the 25 Member Island Associations at the Annual General Meeting whilst the EC is empowered to amend the Guidelines and Sports By-laws and Anti-Doping Rules if and when considered necessary.

25 Member Islands each with an Island Games Association (IGA)

Each Member Island Association has its own Constitution and regulations to enable them to participate in the NatWest Island Games.

Member Islands Sports Associations from the permitted Sports in the NatWest Island Games

Each Sports Association is governed by its own Constitution, Guidelines and the Rules of its International Federation

